EAST LONDON FINE ART SOCIETY

The East London Fine Art Society, established 1948, is a society aimed at promoting art awareness in the local community.

PRESENTS

THE PEEP SHOW EXHIBITION

The Peep Show is an exhibition of works in miniature

Miniatures often have a jewel-like quality to the finished work.

The painting of minute intricacies and the use of delicate and detailed painting techniques are features of these artworks.

Entries are invited for this exhibition

For this exhibition artists are invited to submit artworks that must measure not more than A5 format (148mm x 210mm) or preferably smaller

ARTISTS PLEASE REMEMBER:

Closing date for entries is Monday 30th September 2024

All works must be properly framed with eye screws attached ready to be hung as well as the artist's name and title put n the back of each artwork.

A maximum of six entries are allowed per artist.

Entry forms can be collected from the gallery or submitted online on the gallery's website at www.annbryant.co.za.

Cost for entry is R15.00 per painting for a non-member and R5.00 per entry for members
